

Tina Cook has been dancing since the age of 4. She studied ballet, tap, and jazz under Shelly Ledbetter for 15 years. During that time, she was also captain of the State Championship cheerleading squad and participated in gymnastics. She was a student teacher for 3 years and has been teaching dance in studios and on her own for 15 years. She performed in the Contemporary Dance Festival in Tulsa, OK, and was also selected to participate in Tulsa Summer Arts Training and a summer intensive at Ballet Magnificat. Ms. Tina also coached numerous cheer and pom squads in the Tulsa area. She graduated from Oral Roberts University with a BS in Elementary Education, and taught first grade for 4 years (2 years at CSCS). She founded Turning Pointe Dance in the fall of 2004, and loves to share the joy of dancing and teach students how to use it for the glory of God. She and her husband Cody have two boys, Cale and Jack and baby ballerina, Ella.

Additional Summer Teachers: Ms. Sofia Barrientos, Ms. Liz Cates, Ms. Erika Yeager, and Ms. Jenna Spengler
